nteresting case has been presented to First-Comptroller Porter for decision. A wealthy otch gentleman, while traveling by rail in his native country, in 1876, lost his portmantean, containing five hundred thousand do lars in bonds of various nations, among which where five thousand dollars in United States six per cent. coupon bonds. Some time ago the police of Scotland arrested two men and one woman upon suspicion of having stolen the portmanteau. Upon being arraigned they confessed the theft and related a singular story about the disposition of th roperty. They explained that, not being se of the papers, and, fearing to retain them, they were burned. A relative of the Scotch iding in this country now comes for ward with an application for the issue of dudicates for the bonds stolen, a full descripion of which is given. Similar applications to European governments whose bonds were mong those alleged to have been burned ave been granted. A transcript from th ecords of the Scotch courts sets forth these acts, and attests the respectability of the gentleman who lost the bonds. The firstaptroller intimated to day that if, upon a berough examination, the facts are found to as stated, be will approve the application. Should the duplicates be issued they will have to be deposited with the United States treasurer in order to secure the government regularly draw the interest. FOREIGN NEWS.

The Diaro Espanol says Moncasi, before his execution, gave his confessor instructions to make personal communication to the king. Swearing by Bracelet, Sword and Cross.

All the Year Round: "Several, oaths of the middle ages were borrowed from the pagans, as idols upon arms, the usual mode of adjuration among the northern nations; on farthest corner of the room from the safe. the oath by joining hands; by taking hold of Yesterday morning he was not there when | the hem of the garment; swearing by the Mr. Larcombe left to pay off the men in the feet of the abbot and monks; upon bracelets composing room, at nine o'ctock. At eleven and others. Concerning the bracelet oath, housand dollars, the man was there, looking | bracelet of twenty ounces weight, which was out of the one window. The safe was then | kept upon the altar, and, being sprinkled those who took any solemn oath. He says it four hundred, together with about eight full was either of silver, or of silver and brase oom, he relocked the safe and put the key in this purpose it was worn on the judge's arm during the trial. Sir Henry Ellis was rewith the English Alfred, at Wareham, in them as hostages, and swore an oath to him on the holy bracelet.' Of swearing on the ery, came in soon after and asked the stran-ery who he was waiting for, as Mr. Larcombe stance in the life of the great Gustavus Vasa, of Sweden. In 1540 he assembled the states, in which it was decided that the monarchy should be hereditary; whereupon the king drew his sword, and extended it before him, saying: 'In the name of the holy trinity, and by the power of Almighty God, who bath bestowed on us our children, and bath caused them to be heirs of the Swedish empire, we stretch over you the sword of justice, as a testimony from us and our heirs, mation, stand forth each of you, and touchthus repeat the oath of fidelity, that to us which he had placed on the right-hand side and our heirs you have freely offered.' Hearing this, the states approached-senators, might have placed them there by inadvert- on the royal sword, and each took the eath cross was practiced by the Russians from early times; thus, in 1557, on the conclusion of the safe, which belongs to waste paper and and spurs and subjects fail me, when need is sale of document fund. A singular and for-sorest. This oath was confirmed by the par-dollars to the bindery, would have made the haul a much greater one if the attempt had breast, was, in reality, laid upon the gospel.

The senator is free and emphati in his declaration that under no possible sirenmstances will be allow his name to be thus used. On the first instant the postoffice department reduced the prices of stamped envelopes, on an average, twenty per cent broughout the entire schedule, and the resolt is seen in the largely increased requi-sitions now being received. Those on Saturday footed up four million four hundred and ox v-six thousand six hundred envelopes valued at ninety-seven thousand five hundred and fifty-five dollars, more than double tho f any other single day in the history of the epartment. The entire requisitions to-day postal cards, amounted to five hundred and eventeen thousand five hundred and eightynine dollars, included in which were million seven hundred and sixty-five thou sand five hundred postal cards. DEAR SIR-In further compliance with the equest of your committee, communicated to ne by your letter of the twenty-firstultimo, I have the honor now to inclose you "Install-ment No. 2" of facts relating to the late ections, and especially to the misconduct of the United States supervisors and deputynarshals, to wit: First-A letter from James H. Paine, Jacksonville, Florida, relative t the misconduct of the United States supervisors and deputy-marshals at the late a tion in the second congressional district that State. Second-An affidavit from Owen J. Sommers, of Duval county, Fiorida, relating to the same subject. Third—The statement of F. C. Randolph, Montgomery, Alaama, showing the misconduct of the United States deputy-marshals at the late election in that State. I am ascured that these three, gentlemen are citizens of high standing and espectability, and I beg leave respectfully to commend their statements to the earnest conideration of your committee. I am, sir, very espectfully, your obedient servant. A G. THURMAN. Here follow the statements referred to in he letter of Senator Tnurman. Paine's let er refers principally to the employment of United States supervisor of election and deputy-marshal at the voting precincts through out the counties comprising the "black bell Philadelphia, January 5: Hon. Morton of Florida," Nasson, Duval, Alachna, Columbia, Swanee, Marion, Madison, Jefferson Leon, and Gadsden, and be concludes by say ing that the deputy United States marshals who were present on election day at the vaious precincts in the "black belt counties e in no sense general deputies, but men solely engaged on special service, beginning and ending on election day; that there wa no earthly necessity for these being present present were amply able to preserve order and conserve a fair election, as has been evidenced time and again before. Owen J. Sommers, whose affidavit is alluded to b Mr. Thurman, deposes that colored United States marshals in Daval county, Florida, were engaged, in the election of the filth of ots, and persuading colored voters to Randolph's letter concerning onduct of the election in Montgomery co ty. Alabama, alleges that colored men wer marshals, in violation of the State law, dis ributed whisky and other refreshments among the colored voters.

Our Tenure of Life Depends in great measure upon our regard for or neglect of the laws of health. If we violate them we cannot expect to "make old bones." But that the span of existence allot ed to a naturally delicate cur stitution, or one which has been shaken by disease may be materially length-ned, is a fact of which we Pesth, January 5: The Hungarian deficit have cally proof.
